

Kentucky, including all of Col. Haldeman's staff officers, yesterday signed letters of resignation from the regiment, and those letters have been forwarded to Adjutant Gen. Philip P. Johnston for transmission to Gov. Willson.

Resignations Reach Frankfort.

Frankfort, Ky., July 26.—Adj. Gen. Johnston to-day received the resignations of Lieut. Col. James P. Gregory and Capt. R. J. McBryde, of the First regiment. He says that the resignations will all be accepted. Plans will be put on foot at once for a reorganization of the regiment.

A HARD STRUGGLE.

Many an Earlington Citizen Finds the Struggle Hard.

Mrs. Frank Dennis, of Earlington, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills cured me after all other medicines had failed and consequently I am pleased to recommend them. For three years my kidneys were disordered. I was unable to sleep well on account of the dull ache in my back and when I arose in the morning I was very lame. I tried easily, felt languid and nervous and was troubled by headaches and dizzy spells. The kidney secretions contained sediment and passed too frequently and whenever I caught cold my trouble was aggravated. I also suffered from pains in the small of my back and if I stooped or lifted, sharp twinges passed through my loins. Learning of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box. I received prompt relief from their use and it was not long before I was rid of the trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

A Birthday Dinner.

On Sunday, July 25th, there were 44 persons met at Mr. and Mrs. Galen Burden's, near No. 9, to celebrate Mr. Burden's 37 birthday and at 12 o'clock dinner was announced and the table just seem to groan under the nice things to eat that were upon it, though it was soon relieved of the greater portion of its dainties and all present seemed to enjoy the repast, and in the afternoon ice cream and cake were served, and the evening was spent in social conversation. So the day closed and the guests returned home, with desires to soon attend another birthday dinner.

Death of Prominent Men.

Madisonville, Ky., July 27.—The funeral of Hon. A. K. Bradley yesterday and the death of Esquire W. D. Stodghill to-day have cast a gloom over Madisonville. Mr. Bradley was born eighty-one years ago in Hopkins county and soon moved to Madisonville and became prominent in the legal profession. He was in the Mexican war. He twice represented the county in the lower branch of the Legislature and served a term as State Senator. Mr. Stodghill was 70 years of age. He was born in Hopkins county. He was for many years a member of the Fiscal Court, serving as a Magistrate and at times acting as County Judge.

The Serpent's Inducement.

Perhaps the serpent told Eve that apples were good for the complexion.

Animals Cannot Reason. Animals do not reason. If any one truth has come out of all the critical study of the animal mind that has been going on since this century came in, this is it. Animals do not reason; they never have reasoned; they never by any possibility can reason. The wisest of them do, indeed, get into the borderland that separates reasoning from other mental processes; but no living creature, except man, ever gets unequivocally across the line.—E. T. Brewster, in McClure's.

Her Pasts.

They were talking in low tones of the hostess. "She has a very gracious presence," said one. "It's a pity she isn't married to a man with money, so that she could entertain more elegantly. She seems to be used to entertaining." "She is," another explained. "Several of her former husbands were men of brains and some means, they tell me."

Modern Warfare.

The battle of Fornova, fought July 6, 1495, between the French and the Milanese, whose territory they were invading, was the very last of the characteristic Middle Age battles. From that time the infantry gained the pre-eminence over the cavalry, and cannon were employed in preference to all other projectile weapons.

Doing Police Work.

The "police girl" is something new in the ranks of women workers, a young lady filling such a position having been given a "beat" at a Philadelphia theater entrance recently. She wore a uniform—at least the coat part of it—and a white cap and carried a rattan cane and seemed to be able to keep order.

Circumlocution.

"Cousin Harvey," said Amos, pointing to the town square, with its muddy roads straggling off into the country dreariness, "don't you like the way our town is laid out?" "Indeed I do," replied Cousin Harvey, "it looks as natural as life."

Rule of Contraries.

Hubbubs—How have you managed to keep that cook of yours so long? Subbubs—Oh, I'm foxy. Every once in a while I make a bluff at trying to discharge her, and then she makes up her mind to stay just for spite.—Philadelphia Record.

Service.

You will do the greatest service to the state if you shall raise, not the roofs of the houses but the souls of the citizens; for it is better that great souls should dwell in small houses rather than for mean slaves to lurk in great houses.—Epictetus.
